SPIRITUALITY AND SERVICE

How They Interconnect

Joseph Clarkson

Our speaker, Joe Clarkson, is a well known high school principal, teacher and dynamic lecturer on contemplative prayer. He will use the life of Henri Nouwen, who, after years as a prolific writer with a world wide lecture circuit, spent his last ten years in service to disabled people at Daybreak, a L'Arche Home in Richmond Hill, Ontario. Clarkson will show that Nouwen is a marvellous example of spirituality spilling over into a life of service.
